

Discover

E V E N T S

Columbians know how to have a good time. And when they do, they do it in The District. Movies in the park, film festivals, carriage rides, free concerts and family fun make The District the ideal place to experience Columbia. And The District hosts the most popular events in town like the Twilight Festival, the Living Windows Festival, Columbia Festival of the Arts, the Pub Crawl and First Night Columbia.

Discover

ATMOSPHERE

Whether it's coffee in the morning or martinis at midnight, The District is the place to be. Columbia's vibrant community is best experienced in The District, where the friendly and energetic vibe is up early and stays out late. The District's lively mix of historic architecture, sidewalk cafés and retail shops provide the perfect setting for a business meeting, lunch with a friend or a night on the town.

Discover

D I N I N G

Burgers....sushi....French fusion .....or Greek? Whatever your taste buds decide, you'll find it in The District. With over 70 delectable restaurants and bars to choose from, The District is the ideal place to grab a quick bite of Americana or savor internationally inspired cuisine.

Discover

B U S I N E S S

Mixing business with pleasure is what The District is all about. Government offices. A host of professional and retail businesses. The District is the economic hub of the region.

Then there's the college crowd. The District is home to two colleges and the University of Missouri—nearly 33,000 students within walking distance of The District's premier shopping, dining and entertainment.

Discover

ENTERTAINMENT

Catch some comedy.
Jump and jive to jazz. Ponder a play, or be seen in the club scene.

The District boasts over 45 live performances every week
in an eclectic mix of venues, from renovated theatres to bluesy bars, aromatic coffeehouses to state-of-the-art clubs.

Discover

LIVING

Historic architecture, sidewalk cafés, renovated lofts, and street musicians are just a few of the reasons The District is emerging as one of Columbia's most chic residential areas.

College students, young professionals and those just wanting to be in the center of the action all call The District home.