(Columbia - MO) Listen, learn and see history as it comes alive at the Heritage Festival. Listen to the music of past generations. Learn about Lewis and Clark as you stroll through a replica of a camp site and see an extensive exhibit of the expedition and artifacts on display. See artisans and tradesmen dressed in 19th century attire that are demonstrating their trades and selling their wares. Visit an 1859 town with shopkeepers, townspeople and a medicine show. See cowboys with their chuck wagons. A large contemporary craft area will also be featured.

The Heritage Festival brings yesterday and today together.

The hayride draws a crowd at the Heritage Festival.

Listen to a wide range of entertainment to include music, dancing and storytelling. Featured entertainers have included Chris Camp – The Whip Guy, the Discovery Trio (Lewis & Clark themed music), Ironweed Bluegrass Band, Cowboy Poets, a Fiddlers Competition, Professor Farquar's Great American Medicine Show, a Jazz & Blues stage, and many local favorites.

Saturday evening Ghost Stories are sponsored by the Mid-Missouri Organization of Storytellers. Children will enjoy numerous activities in the Fun for Young'uns Area and the entire family can ride on a hayride. Tour the Historic Maplewood Home and the Walter's Boone County Historical Museum. Great food and a beautiful park setting will make the Heritage Festival a family tradition.
